Have us apply the BonzaXfers to any garments we offer.

Direct to film printing involves printing a design onto a special film, applying and melting a powder adhesive to the printed film, and pressing the design onto the garment or merchandise.

1. Apply to a wide variety of materials

While Direct To Garment (DTG) printing works best on 100% cotton, BonzaXfers work on many different garment materials: cotton, nylon, polyester, 50/50 blends, and both light and dark fabrics.

2. No need for pretreatment

BonzaXfers bonds the print directly to the material, meaning no pretreatment is necessary, unlike DTG!

4. More durable than DTG prints

There's no denying that DTG prints have soft, barely-there hand feel because the ink is applied directly to the garment & DTG has a nice soft hand feel but BonzaXfers are more durable and are also barely noticeable.

DTF transfers wash well, and are flexible – meaning they won't crack or peel, making them great for heavy-use items.

5. Multiple Colours all in 1 x Set Up - No Set Ups on Repeats if re-run within 12 months - Bonza!!!

Since you can eliminate the step of preparing a Screen for each colour so the Set Up is small in comparison and if you are repeating a Job within 12 months, unlike other Suppliers, we don't charge for a Repeat Set Up.

That's great news for one-off or small-volume orders that traditionally wouldn't be profitable.

There are lots of reasons why BonzaXfers can be a great addition to your business, especially if you are thinking of adding this handy technology to your arsenal!
